

At Spean Bridge, and within Kilmonivaig Parish Church, the eighteenth day of February 2007, at 6.45 pm, which place, date and time the Presbytery of Lochaber met in hunc effectum and was constituted with prayer.

1. SEDERUNT, APOLOGIES & WELCOME

Present were Rev Dr Adrian Varwell, Moderator pro-tem, the Rev David M. Anderson, Clerk, thirteen full members and three corresponding members of Presbytery. Names and apologies as per sederunt sheet.

2. MINUTE

That part of the minute of the meeting of sixth February 2007 appointing this day and place for the setting apart and admission of Mr Eric Walker as Reader of the Church of Scotland was read.

3. ADMISSION

The Presbytery then proceeded to the Church, where the Moderator pro-tem conducted worship and the Rev Donald MacQuarrie preached. The Moderator then addressed to Mr Walker the Questions appointed to be put on Admission to office of Reader and received satisfactory answers to the same. The Formula having been signed, the Presbytery did, by prayer, set apart and admit the said Mr Eric Walker to the office of Reader. Prayer being ended, the Moderator gave him the right hand of fellowship as did other members of Presbytery present. The Clerk presented Mr Walker with a Bible. After praise and prayer, the congregation was dismissed, an opportunity being afforded them to meet Mr Walker.

4. ROLL

The Presbytery resumed alone. The name of Mr Walker was added to the Roll of Corresponding Members and the Clerk thanked the participants in the service. Thanks were also expressed to Mrs Pat MacQuarrie for her assistance with the displays during the service.

Closed with prayer

8.10 pm

.....Moderator

.....Clerk